

Mary Quiberg Named Stonyford Rodeo Grand Marshal

by Roy Stewart

Mary Quiberg has been chosen as Grand Marshal for the 74th Annual Stonyford Rodeo and Parade. Mary is a near-native of Stonyford; she came with her parents as a young girl. She left Stonyford as a young woman, travelling far and wide performing interesting jobs in such locales as Pollock Pines and Monterey, California; Fairbanks, Alaska; and Columbus, Georgia. She worked for the Forest Service, the Job Corps Conservation Center and a Criminal Justice Planning Board. She held clerical positions, was an administrative assistant, a real estate agent, and a Deputy Sheriff in Colusa County. While Mary traveled, she returned home to Stonyford every chance she got to visit her folks, Art and Marie, and to help on the family's Moody Ranch.

In 1983, Mary moved back to Stonyford and became a rancher; she bought her parent's cattle, leased their ranch, and went into business for herself. This is a business that she still owns today.

Mary is a mover and shaker around Stonyford. She volunteers with her church, where she edits the weekly bulletin; the Stony Creek Horsemen's Association, for whom she chairs the Publicity Committee and helps on the Ticket Committee; and the Stonyford Museum Board, where she's the Secretary and a docent in the museum. She also volunteered to take minutes for the volunteer fire department's director's meeting from 2002 until recently. She is a member of the Glenn-Colusa Cattlemen and Cattlewomen's Associations.

Come and see Mary at the Stonyford Rodeo Parade, on May 6, at 10 a.m., and at the rodeo on May 6, at 1 p.m. and May 7, at noon.
