

Trick Rider Madison MacDonald Will Appear at the Stonyford Rodeo

Madison MacDonald, an award winning trick rider, will be the Specialty Act at this year's rodeo. She has followed her dreams of becoming a Professional Trick Rider and now has over twenty-four years of experience performing across North America and Mexico at world renowned events and rodeos. Born and raised outside of Calgary, Alberta, she now lives in Helena, Montana. Since the age of eighteen, Madison has been selected as a NFR Contract Act ten times; she has been nominated five times for one of the PRCA's Top 5 Dress Act of the Year awards.

Madison is also a professional barrel racer and spends her time competing, team roping and training horses when not performing. Madison's other passion has always been teaching, she dedicates her free time teaching the next generation of Trick Riders and helps people learn all western disciplines as well as further their horsemanship skills.

Aside from rodeo events Madison works as a stunt double for various productions such as Canadian TV Show Heartland. She recently did a commercial for the New York clothing designer Alexander Wang. Madison is extremely dedicated to the western industry and truly loves entertaining people. She is known for her fast paced, high energy and very skilled Trick Riding. This will be her first time in Stonyford. Come to the rodeo and make her welcome.
